IMPORTANT TEUTONIC SUCCESS

Germans Take Lodz From Russians.

DETAILS ARE LACKING

Brief Berlin Bulletin Tells of Capturing Polish City.

Berlin, Dec. 7.—It is officially announced that the Germans occupied Lodz Sunday.

London, Dec. 7.—The battle, or series of battles, for the possession of Lodz and the railways leading through Northern Poland to Warsaw, continues without abatement but the reticence of the German and Russian headquarters staffs and the meager-ness of telegraphic communication, which was interrupted by storms, prevent a clear view being obtained of the progress of the fighting.

The German official report dismisses the struggle in a single sentence—
"the battles of Lodz are developing according to our expectations—while the last Russian report, sent from Petrograd Friday, simply recorded that the battle was in progress."

From unofficial sources, however, it is gathered that on Thursday last the Germans, having failed in their attempt to pierce the Russian center, commenced, with the aid of reinforcements, another attempt to envelop the Russians on both flanks.

There is no news from South Poland beyond a German denial of a success reported to have been achieved by the Russians at Czenstochowa.
The capture of one of the advance positions at Przemysl is regarded as conferring a valuable advantage to the Russians in their attack on the fortress.

Russians Invading Hungary.

Leaving this city to the attentions of the besieging armies the Russians are pushing in small bodies steadily across the plains of Hungary and fugitives are said to be pouring toward Budapest.

In the face of the Austrian advance in Serbia there has been talk of the removal of the capital from Nish to Mitrovitz but Serbia denies that this step actually has been taken.

The allies continue to push forward in Flanders and in Northern France, but the Germans explain that they are giving ground for tactical and strategical reasons.

There has been a recrudescence of hard fighting in the Argonne district, where the French claim they are making progress. On the whole, however, in these siege operations these successes and reverses only mean a gain or loss of a few hundred yards and a slight readjustment of positions.

Seemingly more important is the unofficial statement that the French have seriously interfered with the German communications between Metz and the Woevre district in France, for here, as elsewhere, command of the roads is of the greatest importance to the armies.

AUSTRIANS GAINING GROUND

Are Following Up Their Victory at Belgrade.

London, Dec. 7.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent sends the following official dispatch received from Vienna:

"South of Belgrade our troops are gaining ground. West of Arad-Jolovac, Dorcy and Milanovatz the enemy has received reinforcements and continues severe attacks in a westerly direction.

"The Serbian civilian population is returning. Fifteen thousand inhabitants remained in Belgrade, where the new Austrian administration already is working."

TURKISH CRUISER DAMAGED

Six Ottoman Vessels, Carrying War Supplies, Reported Sunk.

Petrograd, Dec. 7.—The Hamidieh (Turkish cruiser) has struck a mine and returned to Constantinople considerably damaged, according to the Russian official news agency's Constantinople advices.

These advices say also that Russian warships have sunk six Turkish sailing vessels which were carrying war supplies.

DUE TO ARTILLERY FIRE

Germans Admit Evacuation of Position in France.

Berlin, Dec. 7.—The evacuation by the Germans of Vernelles, southeast of Bethune, was officially announced in a statement issued here. The statement is:

"Vernelles was evacuated by us according to our plan, on account of the continuous French artillery fire, which was causing unnecessary loss.
The buildings which remained standing were blown up by us and our troops occupied positions prepared east of Vernelles, so that the enemy could not follow in this direction."

ROUMANIA DECIDES TO ENTER CONFLICT

Attitude of Bulgaria Still Remains Doubtful.

Geneva, Dec. 7.—The Journal de Geneve publishes a dispatch from Bucharest, which says that Roumania has decided definitely to enter the war on the side of the allies.

This decision, according to the dispatch, is in accordance with the wish of the entire country, including King Ferdinand and all the Roumanian statesmen, with the exception of the minister of finance, M. Marghiloman.
The question of when Roumania will make her entry into the conflict is being discussed, one side desiring to avoid a winter campaign, but the military authorities express the fear that Serbia may be defeated before the spring.

The attitude of Bulgaria still remains doubtful. Greece, Serbia and Roumania have proffered certain concessions, which, however, Sofia seems not to consider a sufficient inducement.

MONTENEGRO HARD PRESSED

King Nicholas Says One-third of His Army Has Fallen.

Petrograd, Dec. 7.—King Nicholas of Montenegro has telegraphed the Bourse Gazette that one-third of his army has fallen on the battlefield.

"Nevertheless," King Nicholas adds in his message, "Montenegrins will continue to defend their country and deliver attacks on the enemy's territory. Their means are exhausted and they will be most grateful for assistance, either in money or supplies."

The war strength of the Montenegrin army is estimated at approximately 50,000 men.

A dispatch from Berlin Dec. 4 stated that, according to an official announcement made there, a number of transports, escorted by British and French warships, had reached Antivari, the sole seaport of Montenegro. The assumption was that these transports carried troops, which would assist the Montenegrins in their campaign.

UNKNOWN WARSHIP AGROUND

Navy Department Says Stranded Ship Is Not American.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Fears that the war vessel reported aground near Ocean City, Md., might either be the destroyer Terry or Perkins, bound from Newport, R. I., to Charleston, S.
C., were dissipated by advices to the navy department from Norfolk, reporting the safe arrival of both those vessels at that port.

The receipt of this dispatch satisfied navy officials that the stranded vessel was not an American man-of-war.

GERMANS TAKE LODZ IN POLAND

Special to The Dispatch:—

London, Dec. 7, 11:50 A. M.—With Lodz taken and advances of 25 miles made on both flanks the Germans in Poland are gaining control of the main roads leading direct to Warsaw. The Germans are also threatening Russian communications on the southern front. The Germans have advanced along the Vistula river and fighting is reported at Allow to the north of Lodz and in the vicinity of Piekotkow.

ALLIES ASSUME THE OFFENSIVE

Special to The Dispatch:—

London, Dec. 7, 2:40 P. M.—An offensive movement of the Allies against the German armies on French and Belgian soil is apparently being extended gradually and now, according to the best available information, covers a large part of the battle line from the North Sea to Switzerland.
Today's official French statement specifically mentions offensive movements in Belgium, in the regions of Arrmentieres, Arras and Aisne. At all these points, it is said, the superiority of the French offensive is shown.

GALE LASHES EASTERN COAST

Special to Dispatch:

New York, Dec. 7, 11:50 A. M.—The entire Atlantic seaboard from Norfolk to Maine is being lashed by a gale which at times reached the velocity of 70 miles. The storm has been raging forty-eight hours and shipping is practically paralyzed. Many vessels which put out before the blow began have not reported and have not reported and much anxiety is felt for their safety. Many cottages at various summer resorts were destroyed.

RAILWAY REVENUES DROP FOUR PERISH IN FLAMES

Income and Expense for September Less Than in 1913.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Decreases in revenues and operating expenses for September of 90 per cent of the railroads of the country are shown in a summary compiled by the bureau of railway economics. The report covers roads operating 223,941 miles and the total operating revenue for September, 1914, was $269,581,592, a decrease of $13,792,318 from September, 1913.

Operating expenses, including cost of maintaining track and equipment, running trains, getting business and administration for 1914, amounted to $178,986,808, $14,380,302 less than for the same month in 1913.
The net operating revenues for September on a basis of actual receipts less expenses showed a slight increase. The month's revenues in 1914 were $91,494,784, an increase of $587-984 over 1913.

GREAT TUNNEL BLOWN UP

Blocks Communication Between Servia and Roumania.

Amsterdam, Dec. 7.—The great tunnel near Tychetoch (Tekija) has been blown up by dynamite, thus severing communication between Serbia
and Roumania, according to advices from Nish, Serbia, to the Rotterdam Courant. The passage of Russian transports along the Danube, the dispatch states, has therefore become impossible.

Troops Capture Mexicans.

Brownsville, Tex., Dec. 4.—Nine Mexicans, heavily armed, part of an alleged filibustering expedition of twenty-five members, were captured by United States cavalrymen near Hidalgo, Tex., according to a report received here. The capture was made after an exciting chase.

IRELAND DOING HER DUTY

John Redmond Says Irishmen Are Joining British Army.

London, Dec. 7.—Speaking at a great demonstration at Tuam, Ireland, John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalist party, replied to statements that Ireland was not doing her duty in the present crisis.

He quoted official statistics, showing that, despite the fact that emigration had drawn from Ireland the flower of her population, there were serving with the military forces of the crown on Nov. 30 89,000 Irishmen who had been in the army before the war began or who had joined as reservists or recruits. If to that were added tens of thousands of Irish recruits,
who were joining the colors in Great Britain or were now in the ranks of the Canadian, Australian or New Zealand contingents, he said, it was safe to say that from 130,000 to 140,000 Irishmen were with the colors.

BRYAN PROMISES FEDERAL TROOPS

Arizona Citizens Ask Protection From Mexican Fire.

NACO SENDS URGENT APPEAL

Telegram to Several United States Senators Says Five Persons Have
Been Killed and Forty-two Injured
During Past Two Months on the American Side of the Line.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 7.—Gov. ernor George W. P. Hunt received assurance from Secretary of State Bryan that federal troops will give all possible protection to the citizens of Naco, Ariz.

Naco, Ariz., Dec. 7.—Citizens of Na-
co sent another appeal for protection from the Mexican fire from the belligerents at Naco, Sonora, just across the line, which has killed five and wounded forty-two persons on the Arizona side during the last two months.

Telegrams concluding "for God's sake, help us," were addressed to Arizona's two United States senators,
Henry F. Ashurst and Marcus A.
Smith, at Washington and to United States Senators Albert B. Fall of New Mexico and William A. Smith of Michigan.

Action by the senate that will au-tomatically close ports on the Mexican border, whenever they become the scenes of battle, is asked.

The messages were signed by O.
W. Brandon, as chairman of a citizens' meeting, called to devise some methods of obtaining protection from the Mexican bullets and shells.

Colonel John F. Gullfoyle of the Ninth United States cavalry assumed command of the United States forces here, succeeding Colonel C. A. P. Hatfield.

The telegram sent to United States Senator Ashurst reads:

"Having appealed to Washington in vain for some relief, the citizens at Naco now come to you and ask you to help us. For two months Mexican factions have been fighting for possession of Naco, Sonora, which has been strongly fortified by almost impenetrable trenches surrounding the town, with the international line as a base. Mexican factions have deliberately used the border towns as a means of retreat without considering how many American lives were sacrificed. It made no difference to them as long as they could get munitions and supplies.

"There is no safety in the streets day or night and very little in the houses. We suggest you introduce a bill providing for automatically closing Mexican border ports when they become the battleground for foreign factions, obtaining immediate passage if possible. Five have been killed and forty-two wounded and the end is not
yet. For God's sake, help us."

SLAIN BY MEXICAN BANDITS

Night of Nov. 22.

Galveston, Dec. 7.—Walter R. Innes, twenty-six years old, superintendent of the plantation of the Banana Groves company of Chicago at Jule, Isthmus of Tehuantepec, was shot and killed by Mexican bandits the night of Nov.
22, according to Roger Innes, a brother, who arrived here with the body.
Innes was a British subject and, ac-and American consuls are investigating.

is now principal owner of the works.

FEARS OF BELGIANS CALMED BY BRITAIN

Assured in 1913 Neutrality Would Be Respected.

London, Dec. 7.—With reference to the statements implying that Great Britain had ever contemplated violation of Belgian neutrality the British foreign office issued a record of the conversation which Sir Edward Grey,
secretary for foreign affairs, had with the Belgian minister April 7, 1913:

"In reporting the conversation to the British minister at Brussels, Sir Edward Grey said it had been brought to his knowledge that there was apprehension in Belgium that England would be the first to violate Belgian neutrality.

"He pointed out to the ministry that he did not think this apprehension could have come from a British source
and he was sure England would not be the first to violate the neutrality of Belgium. What England had to consider was what it was desirable and
necessary for England, as one of the guarantors of Belgium neutrality, to do if Belgian neutrality were violated by any power.

"Sir Edward continued: 'For us to be the first to violate it and send troops into Belgium would be to give Germany, for instance, justification for sending troops into Belgium. Also what we desired in the case of Belgium, was that their neutrality should be respected and as long as it is not violated by any other power we should certainly not send troops into their territory."

NATIONAL RED CROSS MEET

President Wilson to Preside at Opening Session Wednesday.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Plans for the tenth annual meeting of the American National Red Cross in this city Wednesday were perfected. The meeting is expected to be the most interesting in the history of the society.

President Wilson, as the active head of the organization, will preside
at the afternoon session Wednesday.
An interesting review of international relief work will be presented by Counsellor Lansing of the state department, also an official of the society.

"The Red Cross and the European War," will be discussed by Miss Mabel Boardman, chairman of the national relief committee.

Indian Princes Contribute.

London, Dec. 7.—Contributions by ruling princes of India to the expenses of the war now amount approximately to $4,000,000, according to a telegram from Delhi. This sum includes $2-000,000 from the Nizam of Hyderabad and $1,650,000 from the Maharaja of Mysore. Besides this, about $950,000 has been subscribed to the Prince of Wales relief fund and the Indian relief fund.

EAGERLY AWAITS ANNUAL MESSAGE

Third Session of Sixty-third Congress Convenes.

JOINT MEETING ON TUESDAY

President Wilson Will Then Appear
and Outline His Wishes for Legislation—Republican Leaders Say
They Will Urge Many Important Measures.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The third session of the Sixty-third congress convened at noon, for which members of both houses flocked to Washington, ending their campaign and holiday recess of six weeks following the long and arduous legislative session which closed late in October.

Republican leaders state they will urge many important measures for passage and some indicate that supply bills may be delayed to such an extent that an extra session may be necessary.

The Democrats are certain to exert every possible effort to prevent delay
and think an extra session unlikely.
Administration leaders await eagerly
the annual message of President Wilson, which will be delivered in joint session Tuesday, for a definite outline of the president's wishes for legislation.

Conservative measures, for which there is strong support, include the general water power and land leasing bills.

Before the senate committee on Philippine islands the bill to pave
the way for Philippine independence,
which passed the house at the last session, is pending.

Members of the committee, however, intimate there may be trouble in getting the bill reported at this session.

Other important measures pending in the senate are the immigration bill, with the literacy test for aliens,
which passed the house at the last session.

Rural credits legislation also is pending. This, however, is on the list of measures which administration leaders are understood not to want to press at this time.

At least seven great annual supply measures are to be rushed so as to report them to the house before the Christmas holidays. These are the legislative, executive and judicial, the District of Columbia, fortifications, pensions, military, postoffice and rivers and harbors appropriation bills.

Constitutional amendments for suffrage and national prohibition also are pending.

WILL HANG FRIDAY, AUG. 13

Joseph Milo Formally Sentenced to Death for Murder.

Bottineau, N. D., Dec. 7.—With a smile Joseph Milo heard himself sentenced to "hang by the neck until he is dead," Friday, Aug. 13, 1915. The convicted murderer of J. N. Karst of Breckenridge, Minn., heard the death sentence pronounced by Judge A. G.
Burr without a tremor. When he resumed his seat Milo's face was almost wreathed in smiles.

"Friday, the thirteenth," Milo's death day, was selected by Judge Burr out of ninety-four days which could have been fixed for the hanging, the law providing that the hanging shall take place not less than six months and not more than nine months from the time of conviction.

John Miller, Milo's alleged companion in the murder of Karst and H. M.
Seisl of Calgary, was sentenced to life imprisonment. He received his sentence with emotion.

COAL LADEN SHIP FOUNDERS

Two Men Drowned and One Washed Ashore in Storm.

Newport News, Va., Dec. 7.—Two men were drowned and a third had a thrilling escape when the schooner William Donnelly of Baltimore, coal
laden for Hampton, foundered off Thimble shoal, in Chesapeake bay.
The schooner was in command of Captain John R. Phillips and a crew of two men. The vessel encountered severe weather and sank before the crew could launch a boat. Captain Phillips managed to grasp a hatch cover. After about six hours he was washed ashore near Willoughby
beach, in Hampton Roads.

Day of Prayer Set Aside.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 7.—The government has set aside Sunday, Jan. 3, as a day of special intercession and prayer on behalf of the British and allied cause in the war and a tribute to the memory of those who have fallen in battle. That Sunday will be observed in Great Britain in a similar manner.

GREAT TUNNEL BLOWN UP

Blocks Communication Between Servia and Roumania.Amsterdam, Dec. 7.—The great tunnel near Tychetich (Tekija) has been blown up by dynamite, thus severing communication between Serbia
and Roumania, according to advices
from Nish, Serbia, to the Rotterdam Courant. The passage of Russian transports along the Danube, the dispatch states, has therefore become impossible.

Troops Capture Mexicans.

Brownsville, Tex., Dec. 4.—Nine Mexicans, heavily armed, part of an alleged filibustering expedition of
twenty-five members, were captured
by United States cavalrymen near Hidalgo, Tex., according to a report received here. The capture was made after an exciting chase.

IRELAND DOING HER DUTY

John Redmond Says Irishmen Are Joining British Army.London, Dec. 7.—Speaking at a great demonstration at Tuam, Ireland, John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalist party, replied to statements that Ireland was not doing her duty in the present crisis.He quoted official statistics, showing that, despite the fact that emigration had drawn from Ireland the flower of her population, there were serving with the military forces of the crown on Nov. 30 89,000 Irishmen who
had been in the army before the war
began or who had joined as reservists
or recruits. If to that were added
tens of thousands of Irish recruits,
who were joining the colors in Great Britain or were now in the ranks of
the Canadian, Australian or New Zealand contingents, he said, it was safe
to say that from 130,000 to 140,000
Irishmen were with the colors.BRYAN PROMISES

NACO SENDS URGENT APPEAL

Telegsam to Several United States Senators Says Five Persons Have
Been Killed and Forty-two Injured
During Past Two Months on the American Side of the Line.**
Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 7.—Gov.
Ernest George W. P. Hunt received assurance from Secretary of State Bryan that federal troops will give all possible protection to the citizens
of Naco, Ariz.
Naco, Ariz., Dec. 7.—Citizens of Na-
co sent another appeal for protection
from the Mexican fire from the belligerents at Naco, Sonora, just across
the line, which has killed five and
wounded forty-two persons on the Arizona side during the last two months.Telegrams concluding "for God's sake, help us," were addressed to Arizona's two United States senators,
Henry F. Ashurst and Marcus A.
Smith, at Washington and to United States Senators Albert B. Fall of New Mexico and William A. Smith of Michigan.Action by the senate that will automatically close ports on the Mexican border, whenever they become the scenes of battle, is asked.The messages were signed by O.
W. Brandon, as chairman of a citizens'
meeting, called to devise some methods of obtaining protection from the Mexican bullets and shells.Colonel John F. Gullfoyle of the Ninth United States cavalry assumed
command of the United States forces
here, succeeding Colonel C. A. P. Hatfield.The telegram sent to United States Senator Ashurst reads:"Having appealed to Washington in vain for some relief, the citizens at Naco now come to you and ask you to help us. For two months Mexican
factions have been fighting for possession of Naco, Sonora, which has
been strongly fortified by almost impregnable trenches surrounding the town, with the international line as a base. Mexican factions have deliberately used the border towns as a
means of retreat without considering
how many American lives were sacrificed. It made no difference to them
as long as they could get munitions and supplies.""There is no safety in the streets
day or night and very little in the houses. We suggest you introduce a bill providing for automatically closing Mexican border ports when they become the battleground for foreign
factions, obtaining immediate passage
if possible. Five have been killed and forty-two wounded and the end is not
yet. For God's sake, help us."

CALMED BY BRITAINAssured in 1913 Neutrality Would Be Respected.London, Dec. 7.—With reference to the statements implying that Great Britain had ever contemplated violation of Belgian neutrality the British
foreign office issued a record of the conversation which Sir Edward Grey,
secretary for foreign affairs, had with the Belgian minister April 7, 1913:"In reporting the conversation to the British minister at Brussels, Sir Edward Grey said it had been brought
to his knowledge that there was apprehension in Belgium that England
would be the first to violate Belgian neutrality.""He pointed out to the ministry that he did not think this apprehension
could have come from a British source
and he was sure England would not be the first to violate the neutrality of Belgium. What England had to consider was what it was desirable and
necessary for England, as one of the guarantors of Belgium neutrality, to
do if Belgian neutrality were violated by any power.""Sir Edward continued: 'For us to be the first to violate it and send troops into Belgium would be to give Germany, for instance, justification for sending troops into Belgium. Also
what we desired in the case of Belgium, was that their neutrality should
be respected and as long as it is not
violated by any other power we should certainly not send troops into their
territory.'"

President Wilson to Preside at Opening Session Wednesday.Washington, Dec. 7.—Plans for the tenth annual meeting of the American National Red Cross in this city Wednesday were perfected. The meeting
is expected to be the most interesting in the history of the society.President Wilson, as the active
head of the organization, will preside
at the afternoon session Wednesday.
An interesting review of international
relief work will be presented by Counsellor Lansing of the state department, also an official of the society."The Red Cross and the European War," will be discussed by Miss Mabel Boardman, chairman of the national
relief committee.

President Wilson Will Then Appear
and Outline His Wishes for Legislation—Republican Leaders Say
They Will Urge Many Important Measures.Washington, Dec. 7.—The third session of the Sixty-third congress convened at noon, for which members of both houses flocked to Washington,
ending their campaign and holiday recess of six weeks following the long
and arduous legislative session which closed late in October.Republican leaders state they will urge many important measures for
passage and some indicate that supply bills may be delayed to such an extent that an extra session may be necessary.The Democrats are certain to exert every possible effort to prevent delay
and think an extra session unlikely.
Administration leaders await eagerly
the annual message of President Wilson, which will be delivered in joint
session Tuesday, for a definite outline
of the president's wishes for legislation.Conservative measures, for which there is strong support, include the
general water power and land leasing bills.Before the senate committee on Philippine islands the bill to pave
the way for Philippine independence,
which passed the house at the last session, is pending.Members of the committee, however, intimate there may be trouble
in getting the bill reported at this session.Other important measures pending
in the senate are the immigration
bill, with the literacy test for aliens,
which passed the house at the last session.Rural credits legislation also is pending. This, however, is on the list of measures which administration
leaders are understood not to want to press at this time.At least seven great annual supply measures are to be rushed so as to report them to the house before the Christmas holidays. These are the
legislative, executive and judicial, the District of Columbia, fortifications,
pensions, military, postoffice and rivers and harbors appropriation bills.Constitutional amendments for suffrage and national prohibition also are pending.

WILL HANG FRIDAY, AUG. 13

Joseph Milo Formally Sentenced to Death for Murder.Bottineau, N. D., Dec. 7.—With a smile Joseph Milo heard himself sentenced to "hang by the neck until he
is dead," Friday, Aug. 13, 1915. The convicted murderer of J. N. Karst of Breckenridge, Minn., heard the death sentence pronounced by Judge A. G.
Burr without a tremor. When he resumed his seat Milo's face was almost wreathed in smiles."Friday, the thirteenth," Milo's death day, was selected by Judge Burr
out of ninety-four days which could
have been fixed for the hanging, the
law providing that the hanging shall
take place not less than six months
and not more than nine months from the time of conviction.John Miller, Milo's alleged companion in the murder of Karst and H. M.
Seisl of Calgary, was sentenced to life
imprisonment. He received his sentence with emotion.

COAL LADEN SHIP FOUNDERS

Two Men Drowned and One Washed Ashore in Storm.Newport News, Va., Dec. 7.—Two men were drowned and a third had a thrilling escape when the schooner William Donnelly of Baltimore, coal
laden for Hampton, foundered off Timble shoal, in Chesapeake bay. The schooner was in command of Captain John R. Phillips and a crew of two men. The vessel encountered severe weather and sank before the crew could launch a boat. Captain Phillips managed to grasp a hatch
cover. After about six hours he was washed ashore near Willoughby
beach, in Hampton Roads.

TO VISIT CHICAGO

Rev. G. P. Sheridan to Preach at Dedication of $35,000 Chicago Church

Rev. G. P. Sheridan will leave the latter part of the week for Chicago, to preach in the parish he left to come to Brainerd. While in Chicago Mr. Sheridan worked indefatigably to clear off the debt on the church, and kindled the vision of a new church.

It is nearly four years since Rev. Sheridan came to Brainerd. In the meanwhile the people in the Park Manor church, Chicago, have worked faithfully and next Sunday will dedicate their new $35,000 church.

It is most fitting that the church should invite their former minister to take part in the dedicatory services.

The pulpit of the First Congregational church in Brainerd will be occupied by Rev. W. L. Sutherland, D. D., of Detroit, Minn.

A SLOGAN FOR BRAINERD

Chamber of Commerce Offers Prize of $5—Competition Open to County

Brainerd wants a slogan, and one that can be heralded with true dignity to the four points of the compass which will call attention to the many virtues and advantages which this city has to offer the stranger.

The lack of a proper slogan was truly emphasized at the two conventions just closed and in order that proper literature and advertising matter might be prepared in time for the next convention scheduled for this city the convention committee have been authorized to offer a prize of $5 in cash to the individual who submits the most appropriate trade mark or slogan according to the three judges who will be appointed to pass upon the specimens submitted.

Rules governing the contest are as follows:

1. Any man, woman or student of Brainerd or Crow Wing county is eligible.

2. Each specimen or slogan submitted must be plainly written on a sheet of white paper with name and address of party submitting same.

3. All slogans must be sent to office of secretary, Chamber of Commerce not later than Dec. 21st, 6 P. M.

As is true in all large cities an appropriate slogan is adopted by the merchants and commercial organization of the city which is prominently displayed on all literature while the slogan or trade mark is printed on all letterheads, envelopes, etc.

In order that some idea may be gained as to the nature of the slogan desired a few of those adopted by other cities is given:

Chicago—"I Will."

Minneapolis—"The City of Lakes and Gardens," or "Minneapolis makes good."

St. Paul—"St. Paul makes better," or "The Capitol City" or "Gateway to the Northwest."

Those submitting slogans should give much thought to the purpose for which it is to be used. School children are particularly invited to enter the contest while a notice is to be sent to the different schools in the county.

BOUQUET FOR DISPATCH

To the Editor:

I do not believe in waiting until one is dead before recognizing any good they may do. So I take this occasion at the close of one of the most important and successful series of meetings or conventions ever held in central and northern Minnesota, to commend the extraordinary and exceedingly commendable enterprise of the Brainerd Dispatch through both its daily and weekly editions in collecting, condensing and publishing all or nearly all of the proceedings and speeches of the leaders and experts in the several department considered which were of great interest to those fortunate enough to hear them, and will be so to the large number equally interested in such matters but who could not attend the meetings. The value of such articles do not cease with their publication. The good is incalculable. Readers will be glad of the opportunity of studying these carefully prepared articles from future references. They will be widely copied and passed around and thus do an inestimable amount of good to all interested in such things. The glorious and rapid fire work of your enterprising live wire and city editor, Mr. John A. Hoffbauer in spreading these reports and speeches broadcast over the whole earth through about a dozen of the leading dailies throughout this and other states as well as in your own papers, is also not to be overlooked and is highly commendable. No one can tell the good that will come to this city and whole section of central Minnesota by such enterprise. I want to suggest right here and now that the best thing the Chamber of Commerce can do is to assemble all the practical instructive papers and speeches presented here in pamphlet form for general distribution. All real estate dealers should

Rev. G. P. Sheridan to Preach at Dedication of $35,000 Chicago Church
Rev. G. P. Sheridan will leave the latter part of the week for Chicago, to preach in the parish he left to come to Brainerd. While in Chicago Mr. Sheridan worked indefatigably to clear off the debt on the church, and kindled the vision of a new church.
It is nearly four years since Rev. Sheridan came to Brainerd. In the meanwhile the people in the Park Manor church, Chicago, have worked faithfully and next Sunday will dedicate their new $35,000 church.
It is most fitting that the church should invite their former minister to take part in the dedicatory services.
The pulpit of the First Congregational church in Brainerd will be occupied by Rev. W. L. Sutherland, D. D., of Detroit, Minn.

Chamber of Commerce Offers Prize of $5—Competition Open to County Brainerd wants a slogan, and one that can be heralded with true dignity to the four points of the compass which will call attention to the many virtues and advantages which this city has to offer the stranger.
The lack of a proper slogan was truly emphasized at the two conventions just closed and in order that proper literature and advertising matter might be prepared in time for the next convention scheduled for this city the convention committee have been authorized to offer a prize of $5 in cash to the individual who submits the most appropriate trade mark or slogan according to the three judges who will be appointed to pass upon the specimens submitted.
Rules governing the contest are as follows:
1. Any man, woman or student of Brainerd or Crow Wing county is eligible.
2. Each specimen or slogan submitted must be plainly written on a sheet of white paper with name and address of party submitting same.
3. All slogans must be sent to office of secretary, Chamber of Commerce not later than Dec. 21st, 6 P. M.
As is true in all large cities an appropriate slogan is adopted by the merchants and commercial organization of the city which is prominently displayed on all literature while the slogan or trade mark is printed on all letterheads, envelopes, etc.
In order that some idea may be gained as to the nature of the slogan desired a few of those adopted by other cities is given:
Chicago—"I Will."
Minneapolis—"The City of Lakes and Gardens," or "Minneapolis makes good."
St. Paul—"St. Paul makes better," or "The Capitol City" or "Gateway to the Northwest."
Those submitting slogans should give much thought to the purpose for which it is to be used. School children are particularly invited to enter the contest while a notice is to be sent to the different schools in the county.

To the Editor:
I do not believe in waiting until one is dead before recognizing any good they may do. So I take this occasion at the close of one of the most important and successful series of meetings or conventions ever held in central and northern Minnesota, to commend the extraordinary and exceedingly commendable enterprise of the Brainerd Dispatch through both its daily and weekly editions in collecting, condensing and publishing all or nearly all of the proceedings and speeches of the leaders and experts in the several department considered which were of great interest to those fortunate enough to hear them, and will be so to the large number equally interested in such matters but who could not attend the meetings. The value of such articles do not cease with their publication. The good is incalculable. Readers will be glad of the opportunity of studying these carefully prepared articles from future references. They will be widely copied and passed around and thus do an inestimable amount of good to all interested in such things. The glorious and rapid fire work of your enterprising live wire and city editor, Mr. John A. Hoffbauer in spreading these reports and speeches broadcast over the whole earth through about a dozen of the leading dailies throughout this and other states as well as in your own papers, is also not to be overlooked and is highly commendable. No one can tell the good that will come to this city and whole section of central Minnesota by such enterprise. I want to suggest right here and now that the best thing the Chamber of Commerce can do is to assemble all the practical instructive papers and speeches presented here in pamphlet form for general distribution. SERVICES WERE MOST IMPRESSIVE

Memorial Address at Elks Lodge of Sorrow Delivered by J. P. Boyle, of Eveleth

GAVE THE HISTORY OF ELKDOM

"Our Abent Brothers" by M. D. Clark, the Musical Selections, the Ceremonies

GEORGE SARGENT
DR. J. L. CAMP

Memorial services held by Brainerd Elks lodge, No. 615, were never more impressive than this year.

The memorial address was delivered by Senator J. P. Boyle, of Eveleth. The opera house was crowded, for Brainerd takes a deep interest in the Elks lodge and many were also anxious to hear the man who spend his boyhood days in Brainerd.

In an eloquent address Senator Boyle recounted the history of the origin of Elkdom, of the tenets and aims of the noble order. The founder was Charles Algernon Vivian, who came from England and with a few kindred spirits formed what was then known as "The Jolly Corks." Later, when gathered in Barnum's museum and contemplating an Elk's head, many suggested the various characteristics of the animal, its gentleness, fleetness, cleanliness, strength and the name of Elks was adopted, for the designation was purely American.

Vivian and his companions at the time did not think they were doing anything great. They wanted companionship, to learn to love one another.

Love, said Mr. Boyle, was the greatest power. True, today, some men considered that brute force was the greatest. Elkdom filled the hopes of the despairing, it helped those who had fallen, it brought about closer friendships.

The Elks were democratic in their views. Their love of country was exemplified in the part the flag had in their ritual.

Their precepts included the admonition to love the Lord Thy God. The God of Elkdom was not the God of science. The God the founders had in mind was the God to whom we pray, to whom we offer our hearts, that inspired the bond of the sinking Titanic to play "Nearer My God To Thee."

There was also the other commandment to love thy neighbor. This shut out all malice and greed. It demanded the fullest measure of altruism. It was stated in the golden rule.

Elkdom set to work a beneficent influence. We should ever be on the alert to answer the call of the weak.

Mr. Boyle paid a tribute to the memory of the two Elks who had passed beyond. He had known Dr. James L. Camp. Occasionally famous men like Dr. Camp pass to the beyond, but oftener it was the average man and of him he wished to speak. He made no stir in the community. He never caused any one to suffer from unjust criticism. He was industrious, a good man, a loving father and a kind husband. Men of such type were the backbone of the state. They were producers in times of peace.

John A. Johnson, former governor of Minnesota, was an Elk and when he passed away thousands of plain people from rural communities stood about and discussed the good he had done and many a tear was shed. He and my departed friend, said Mr. Boyle, had much in common.

Mr. Boyle praised the fraternity of the Elks. "In any fraternity which does not help a man when he is down and out, membership in such an order only increases his bitterness. The Elks, however, were quick to respond in the hour of need. They gave not the charity which was organized and indexed, they helped a brother, not waiting first until he had lost his pride and self respect."

"Make me the friend of as many men, men who have been good friends of me," said Mr. Boyle in conclusion.

The opera house stage was beautifully decorated. The front was graced with potted white chrysanthemums and the broad folds of the American flag twined on the altar and formed a background. Seated near Judge J. T. Sanborn, the exalted ruler, was the speaker of the afternoon and near him M. D. Clark, who spoke on "Our Absent Brothers," and in their stations the other officers of the lodge.

Graham's orchestra softly played the processional as the body of Elks, numbering over half a hundred, slowly filed in and took their places in the body of the theatre.

In the opening ceremonies, Judge Sanborn said the day had been set apart to honor the dead and eloquently expounded the tenets of the Elks regarding these memorial services.

The secretary called the roll of the dead and as he did so, the star suspended above the stage flashed and then glowed out as each name was called.

The opening ode was sung by the lodge and the audience. The bell tolled eleven strokes. Rev. Caleb Benham offered prayer.

Miss Eliza Armstrong sang "Lead, Kindly Light," by S. Graham Nobles. Her voice was admirably adapted to express the deep sentiment of the composition. A violin obligato was played by Edwin Harris Bergh and the piano accompaniment by Mrs. W. F. Wieland.

"Our Absent Brothers" was responded to by M. D. Clark. He said:

"It is not unusual, when we consider that of all things in life only death is certain, that another year should find us met again to commemorate the names of some of those who, in turn, last year were here for the same purpose we are now. But we are not here to weep, and as the close of every life must be, terrible and mysterious as death is no matter what hopes and what memories surround it, sorrowful as is the hour when we part hands that have been clasped life long in earnest friendship, yet, in the spirit of our order, this hour is for just the utterance of a lesson, and in this hour we come together to speak to each other, to recall the grand lessons of those careers which are now completed, and phrase what those lives teach."

The year just past has struck two noble names from off the Brainerd roll of Elkdom, George Sargent and Dr. James L. Camp.

George Sargent, quiet, unpretentious, honest, charitable to all mankind, a true friend, a faithful husband and loving father, and to our order, loyal, active, true. What more could there be said of any man than that? Surely his life was a life of simple completeness, a life ideal.

Dr. Camp—Serene, fearless, marvelous man. Mortal—with so few shortcomings. Ah, no need for pity there, no need that a single tear should fall upon his grave, for no man ever lived who gathered into his bosom a fuller share of blessing, delight and joy. He, who was always young, even when the tabernacle of his flesh grew weak and his step grew less elastic. Dr. Camp—Oh, the tenderness that his mere name is mentioned with, Oh, the good that there was in that one life. Dr. Camp, king of men, yet regal with a royalty beyond that of kings, Dr. Camp, hope of the sick, comforter of the suffering, friend of the poor, rich in charity, honest in business, pure in heart, optimist of optimists, with a smile celestial, with a heart unbounded, with a power for good inestimable. Truly we can say of him, he lived his life upon the altar of his friends.

Yes, all of us are born, and born, we live, and living, dream and aim, and aiming, work, struggle, fight and suffer, for pleasures, luxuries, wife and home, for power, for glory, health and wealth, and living thus, we live but for to die, and dying, leave behind us dust and only memories, memories that are sweet according to the life we lived; memories such as we have today, truly

CHURCH SILVER ANNIVERSARY

First Presbyterian Church Has Gala Services Marking its 25th Anniversary

VISITING PREACHERS SPEAK

Rev. A. H. Carver and Rev. J. F. McLeod, Former Pastors, Take part in Program

Three large audiences greeted the visiting clergymen who spoke in the Presbyterian church yesterday at the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration. Two members were received by certificate Miss Clara E. Case and Evangelist Clarence J. Martin, into the membership of the church.

Rev. A. H. Carver, who was pastor of the church in the years 1898-1903, and is now pastor of the Presbyterian church in Luverne, preached a forceful sermon. He spoke of the old times here in Brainerd and of the many changes since his pastorate. He declared that the Presbyterians needed a church that belonged to this century. "The fact that your Sunday school is forced to meet in sections and in different places shows that necessity."

Somewhere near 175 members responded to their names at the roll call. There are about thirty names on the roll of the dead. This roll was read by A. C. Erickson, an elder of the church.

In the afternoon Rev. S. F. Sharpless, D. D., pastor evangelist, spoke on "Evangelism." Rev. Carver on "Evangelism in the Home" and Rev. J. F. McLeod on "The Successful Church." Evangelist Clarence J. Martin both spoke and sang accompanying himself with his guitar. He spoke of "Evangelism as a Profession," tell how people were reached by different methods. He said the evangelist must adopt various methods in approaching men. Many people spoke of this meeting as one of the most interesting and profitable they had attended.

Special music was furnished by Misses Anna and Gracia Temple and Miss Lillian Peterson and Mr. Martin.

At the evening service Rev. J. F. McLeod, of Litchfield, Minn., who was pastor of the church here from 1905 to 1908, preached the sermon on the text Hebrews 12:13 "Make Straight Paths for Your Feet Lest that Which is Lame be Turned Out of the Way." It was a strong evangelistic appeal for men to live a separated life.

Greetings from former pastors and old members were read by elder, Oscar F. Erickson. One of these was from the pastor of the church in which he told about the organization and first few years of the church's history.

An historical sketch was read by elder Carl Bentley. This sketch was prepared by Rev. W. J. Lowrie and contained the history of the church since its organization. The church began with ten members. It now has a membership of 240. The Sunday school at its beginning had 18 scholars and it now has an enrollment of 250 and an attendance last Sunday of 189.

The music given by the choir and the special singers was very beautiful and particular praise must be given them for some of the success of the celebration. An item of appreciation was read by elder C. D. McKay for the services of the visiting clergymen and their sacrifice in leaving their own pulpits and coming such distances to aid in the anniversary.

This evening at Walker's halls a special program has been prepared for the members of the church and congregation. The pastor will act as toastmaster and all the different departments of the church will be represented by a speaker and its work explained. There will be special music.

IN DISTRICT COURT

Stella Randall of Crosby, Pleads Guilty and is Fined—Blanche Johnson in Jail

In district court two women received sentences. Stella Randall, of Crosby, at the last term of court had deposited $125 cash bail. She had been charged with keeping a house of ill fame and of selling liquor without a license. At this term she did not put in an appearance and Deputy Sheriff Claus Theorin traced her up and found her in Duluth. She was brought to Brainerd, pleaded guilty and was fined $125 and costs on the charge of keeping a house of ill fame. The other charge was continued to the next term of court.

The petit jury was dismissed early last week. In the case of Heath vs. Benson, et al, the keeping of a station in close proximity to the residence of Mrs. Heath was adjudged a nusance. The last jury case considered was that of John Larson vs. Ritar Brothers.

Blanche Johnson, of Ironton, convicted of keeping a house of ill fame, drew $200 fine and costs and 60 days in jail. She had been out on a suspended execution of sentence. She could get no bond, so she paid her fine and started serving the jail sentence. She had $225 cash bail on deposit.

This morning Judge W. S. McClenahan heard the default divorce case of Nelson vs. Nelson, the defendant husband failing to put in an appearance. Mrs. Nelson was granted a decree.

GOES TO KANSAS

Evangelist Clarence J. Martin Will Rejoin Lowry-Moody Evangelistic Party

Evangelist Clarence J. Martin will leave next Monday for Kansas where he goes to meet the Lowry-Moody evangelistic party. He will resume his former position with Evangelist Lowry as assistant evangelist.

When the members of the Lowry-Moody party went on their summer vacations after their campaign here in this city Mr. Martin accepted calls to hold evangelistic services in various communities about Brainerd. He spent the summer and fall in this work and everywhere has met with splendid success.

During two months of the summer he was accompanied by Mrs. Martin and their three-year old son, Eugene. They have since returned to their home in Wichita, Kansas.

As a result of his summer's work in northern Minnesota the evangelist has been instrumental in securing nearly five hundred conversions. Many of these have joined the various churches. Five new church societies have been organized in localities where they did not formerly exist and three church buildings are to be constructed. One of these, the South Long Lake Presbyterian church is now in course of erection.

Mr. Martin has a special adaptability for the work he has chosen. It is a splendid singer. He accompanies his songs with the guitar, with which instrument he is perfectly at home. His ability to do blackboard drawings for chalk talks greatly increases his power of service among the young. His sermons are clear and forceful.

The Lowry-Moody party are now in McPherson, Kansas. Their last meeting at Kearney, Nebraska, resulted in nine hundred conversions. They will close their season June 7, 1915. After this date Evangelist Martin will return to Minnesota and continue his work. He will make Brainerd his headquarters.

SERVICES WERE MOST IMPRESSIVE

Memorial Address at Elks Lodge of Sorrow Delivered by J. P. Boyle, of Eveleth

"Our Abent Brothers" by M. D. Clark, the Musical Selections, the Ceremonies

GEORGE SARGENT
DR. J. L. CAMP

The memorial address was delivered by Senator J. P. Boyle, of Eveleth. The opera house was crowded, for Brainerd takes a deep interest in the Elks lodge and many were also anxious to hear the man who spent his boyhood days in Brainerd.

In an eloquent address Senator Boyle recounted the history of the origin of Elkdom, of the tenets and aims of the noble order. The founder was Charles Algernon Vivian, who came from England and with a few kindred spirits formed what was then known as "The Jolly Corks." Later, when gathered in Barnum's museum and contemplating an Elk's head, many suggested the various characteristics of the animal, its gentleness, fleetness, cleanliness, strength and the name of Elks was adopted, for the designation was purely American.

Vivian and his companions at the time did not think they were doing anything great. They wanted companionship, to learn to love one another.

Love, said Mr. Boyle, was the greatest power. True, today, some men considered that brute force was the greatest. Elkdom filled the hopes of the despairing, it helped those who had fallen, it brought about closer friendships.

The Elks were democratic in their views. Their love of country was exemplified in the part the flag had in their ritual.

Their precepts included the admonition to love the Lord Thy God. The God of Elkdom was not the God of science. The God the founders had in mind was the God to whom we pray, to whom we offer our hearts, that inspired the bond of the sinking Titanic to play "Nearer My God To Thee."

There was also the other commandment to love thy neighbor. This shut out all malice and greed. It demanded the fullest measure of altruism. It was stated in the golden rule.

Elkdom set to work a beneficent influence. We should ever be on the alert to answer the call of the weak.

Mr. Boyle paid a tribute to the memory of the two Elks who had passed beyond. He had known Dr. James L. Camp. Occasionally famous men like Dr. Camp pass to the beyond, but oftener it was the average man and of him he wished to speak. He made no stir in the community. He never caused any one to suffer from unjust criticism. He was industrious, a good man, a loving father and a kind husband. Men of such type were the backbone of the state. They were producers in times of peace.

the state. They were producers in times of peace.

John A. Johnson, former governor of Minnesota, was an Elk and when he passed away thousands of plain people from rural communities stood about and discussed the good he had done and many a tear was shed. He and my departed friend, said Mr. Boyle, had much in common.

Mr. Boyle praised the fraternity of the Elks. "In any fraternity which does not help a man when he is down and out, membership in such an order only increases his bitterness. The Elks, however, were quick to respond in the hour of need. They gave not the charity which was organized and indexed, they helped a brother, not waiting first until he had lost his pride and self respect."

"Make me the friend of as many men, men who have been good friends of me," said Mr. Boyle in conclusion.

The opera house stage was beautifully decorated. The front was graced with potted white chrysanthemums and the broad folds of the American flag twined on the altar and formed a background. Seated near Judge J. T. Sanborn, the exalted ruler, was the speaker of the afternoon and near him M. D. Clark, who spoke on "Our Abent Brothers," and in their stations the other officers of the lodge.

Graham's orchestra softly played the processional as the body of Elks, numbering over half a hundred, slowly filed in and took their places in the body of the theatre.

In the opening ceremonies, Judge Sanborn said the day had been set apart to honor the dead and eloquently expounded the tenets of the Elks regarding these memorial services.

The secretary called the roll of the dead and as he did so, the star suspended above the stage flashed and then glowed out as each name was called.

The opening ode was sung by the lodge and the audience. The bell tolled eleven strokes. Rev. Caleb Benham offered prayer.

Miss Eliza Armstrong sang "Lead, Kindly Light," by S. Graham Nobbes. Her voice was admirably adapted to express the deep sentiment of the composition. A violin obligato was played by Edwin Harris Bergh and the piano accompaniment by Mrs. W. F. Wieland.

"Our Abent Brothers" was responded to by M. D. Clark. He said:

"It is not unusual, when we consider that of all things in life only death is certain, that another year should find us met again to commemorate the names of some of those who, in turn, last year were here for the same purpose we are now. But we are not here to weep, and as the close of every life must be, terrible and mysterious as death is no matter what hopes and what memories surround it, sorrowful as is the hour when we part hands that have been clasped life long in earnest friendship, yet, in the spirit of our order, this hour is for just the utterance of a lesson, and in this hour we come together to speak to each other, to recall the grand lessons of those careers which are now completed, and phrase what those lives teach."

The year just past has struck two noble names from off the Brainerd roll of Elkdom, George Sargent and Dr. James L. Camp.

George Sargent, quiet, unpretentious, honest, charitable to all mankind, a true friend, a faithful husband and loving father, and to our order, loyal, active, true. What more could there be said of any man than that? Surely his life was a life of simple completeness, a life ideal.

Dr. Camp—Serene, fearless, marvelous man. Mortal—with so few shortcomings. Ah, no need for pity there, no need that a single tear should fall upon his grave, for no man ever lived who gathered into his bosom a fuller share of blessing, delight and joy. He, who was always young, even when the tabernacle of his flesh grew weak and his step grew less elastic. Dr. Camp—Oh, the tenderness that his mere name is mentioned with, Oh, the good that there was in that one life. Dr. Camp, king of men, yet regal with a royalty beyond that of kings. Dr. Camp, hope of the sick, comforter of the suffering, friend of the poor, rich in charity, honest in business, pure in heart, optimist of optimists, with a smile celestial, with a heart unbounded, with a power for good inestimable. Truly we can say of him, he lived his life upon the altar of his friends.

Yes, all of us are born, and born, we live, and living, dream and aim, and aiming, work, struggle, fight and suffer, for pleasures, luxuries, wife and home, for power, for glory, health and wealth, and living thus, we live but for to die, and dying, leave behind us dust and only memories, memories that are sweet according to the life we lived; memories such as we have today, truly

First Presbyterian Church Has Gala Services Marking its 25th Anniversary

Rev. A. H. Carver and Rev. J. F. McLeod, Former Pastors, Take part in Program

Three large audiences greeted the visiting clergymen who spoke in the Presbyterian church yesterday at the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration. Two members were received by certificate Miss Clara E. Case and Evangelist Clarence J. Martin, into the membership of the church.

Rev. A. H. Carver, who was pastor of the church in the years 1898-1903, and is now pastor of the Presbyterian church in Luverne, preached a forceful sermon. He spoke of the old times here in Brainerd and of the many changes since his pastorate. He declared that the Presbyterians needed a church that belonged to this century. "The fact that your Sunday school is forced to meet in sections and in different places shows that necessity."

Somewhere near 175 members responded to their names at the roll call. There are about thirty names on the roll of the dead. This roll was read by A. C. Erickson, an elder of the church.

In the afternoon Rev. S. F. Sharpless, D. D., pastor evangelist, spoke on "Evangelism." Rev. Carver on "Evangelism in the Home" and Rev. J. F. McLeod on "The Successful Church." Evangelist Clarence J. Martin both spoke and sang accompanying himself with his guitar. He spoke of "Evangelism as a Profession," tell how people were reached by different methods. He said the evangelist must adopt various methods in approaching men. Many people spoke of this meeting as one of the most interesting and profitable they had attended.

Special music was furnished by Misses Anna and Gracia Temple and Miss Lillian Paterson and Mr. Martin.

At the evening service Rev. J. F. McLeod, of Litchfield, Minn., who was pastor of the church here from 1905 to 1908, preached the sermon on the text Hebrews 12:13 "Make Straight Paths for Your Feet Lest that which is Lane be Turned Out of the Way." It was a strong evangelistic appeal for men to live a separated life.

Greetings from former pastors and old members were read by elder, Oscar F. Erickson. One of these was from the pastor of the church in which he told about the organization and first few years of the church's history.

An historical sketch was read by elder Carl Bentley. This sketch was prepared by Rev. W. J. Lowrie and contained the history of the church since its organization. The church began with ten members. It now has a membership of 240. The Sunday school at its beginning had 18 scholars and it now has an enrollment of 250 and an attendance last Sunday of 189.

The music given by the choir and the special singers was very beautiful and particular praise must be given them for some of the success of the celebration. An item of appreciation was read by elder C. D. McKay for the services of the visiting clergymen and their sacrifice in leaving their own pulpits and coming such distances to aid in the anniversary.

This evening at Walker's halls a special program has been prepared for the members of the church and congregation. The pastor will act as toastmaster and all the different departments of the church will be represented by a speaker and its work explained. There will be special music.

Evangelist Clarence J. Martin Will Rejoin Lowry-Moody Evangelistic Party

Evangelist Clarence J. Martin will leave next Monday for Kansas where he goes to meet the Lowry-Moody evangelistic party. He will resume his former position with Evangelist Lowry as assistant evangelist.

When the members of the Lowry-Moody party went on their summer vacations after their campaign here in this city Mr. Martin accepted calls to hold evangelistic services in various communities about Brainerd. He spent the summer and fall in this work and everywhere has met with splendid success.

During two months of the summer he was accompanied by Mrs. Martin and their three-year old son, Eugene. They have since returned to their home in Wichita, Kansas.

As a result of his summer's work in northern Minnesota the evangelist has been instrumental in securing nearly five hundred conversions. Many of these have joined the various churches. Five new church societies have been organized in localities where they did not formerly exist and three church buildings are to be constructed. One of these, the South Long Lake Presbyterian church is now in course of erection.

Mr. Martin has a special adaptability for the work he has chosen. He is a splendid singer. He accompanies his songs with the guitar, with which instrument he is perfectly at home. His ability to do blackboard drawings for chalk talks greatly increases his power of service among the young. His sermons are clear and forceful.

The Lowry-Moody party are now in McPherson, Kansas. Their last meeting at Kearney, Nebraska, resulted in nine hundred conversions. They will close their season June 7, 1915. After this date Evangelist Martin will return to Minnesota and continue his work. He will make Brainerd his headquarters.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Barrows Mining Co., Brainerd Mining Co. and Barrows-Mississippi Iron Co. Busy

ARE EXPLORING AT BARROWS

Brainerd-Cuyuna Mine in City of Brainerd Approaching Ledge, Pumping 300 Gallons

The Barrows Mining company has moved its drill 275 feet northeast which is half way between drill holes No. 7 and 4-A. At this point it is the intention to put down an angle hole dipping 60 degrees to the south. By putting in this angle hole it will be easier to figure the width of the ore at this point. This new hole will be No. 8-A.

The Barrows-Mississippi Iron Co. have moved their drill 300 feet north of hole No. 4. This hole is No. 9 and at this time is down 127 feet.

The Brainerd Mining company have a drill operating about 1200 feet southeast of the Northern Pacific depot at Barrows. It is reported that this drill is now working in high grade ore and this will undoubtedly mean another mine for Barrows.

At the property of the Cuyuna-Sultana Iron company, known locally as the "Sultana," the ore body has been reached at shaft No. 2. Sinking will be delayed a few days, owing to the necessity of putting in a bearing set at the ledge. It will also be necessary to add two or three sets at the top of the shaft and repair the head-frame before hoisting can begin. Samples of the ore taken from this shaft were forwarded on Wednesday of this week to the laboratories of C. J. O'Connell, of Crosby, and his determinations are awaited with considerable interest. The shaft was sunk on practically the same alignment as hole No. 9 and the drilling records at that point disclosed a high grade Bessemer ore, carrying a considerable manganese content, it is said.

It is the present intention of the management to sink to the 85 foot level and then commence drifting. It will be at least three weeks before Dr. Walter Harvey Weed can make an examination of the property, for the reasons above stated. A blacksmith shop is now being erected and a temporary structure has been built around the boilers and hoist.

W. W. Fegan of Grand Forks, N. D., vice president of the company, was in Duluth the past week and visited the range on his return to Grand Forks. Mr. Fegan is also interested in the Star Mining company which controls a tract north of the Sultana and he says that the Star company will commence drilling on their holdings in the spring.

At the Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd there was encountered a layer of hard pan, then a stratum of quicksand which was safely penetrated, followed by boulders and big gravel. Ledge is being safely reached and it is believed to be but a matter of comparatively short time when the shaft will be anchored. About 300 gallons a minute are being pumped.

The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. has filed to Clement K. Quinn a modification of the lease covering the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29. The Cuyuna-Sultana Iron Co., Mary Jane Campbell and husband and others have given to Clement K. Quinn an option contract and lease covering the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 3, township 46, range 29, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29.

The Iron Mountain Mining company has a meeting scheduled at the company's office in Duluth at 2 P. M. Thursday, Dec. 10. The mines stock-piling on the range are the pioneers, the Kennedy at Cuyuna and the Armour No. 2 at Ironton and Crosby, both belonging to the Rogers, Brown Ore Co.

Mines engaged in shaft sinking or in other development work include the Cuyuna-Sultana, the Wilcox, the Brainerd-Cuyuna.

People of the ranges are highly gratified to have now serving on the state tax commission Judge James T. Hale, of Deerwood, whose wide experience in mineral lands and values particularly fit him for the position. As an appraiser of lands Mr. Hale has acted times innumerable. Universally liked, northern Minnesota is proud to have the merits of Judge Hale recognized and Governor Eberhart's appointee is considered a man who will act with absolute fairness in the responsible position he holds. At the Wilcox mine of the Canadian-Cuyuna Ore Co., at Woodrow, a blowout of water was struck in the drift as ore was being approached. Ten hours were spent in pumping out the water, the two Camerons and the electric pumps being used. One pump was five feet under water at the start. At the present the water is being pumped 700 gallons a minute and everything is under perfect control.

At the county poor farm drilling is being carried on by the Longyear people. Seventy feet of good ore was found in the seventh hole. The eighth hole has been located 300 feet to the southwest.

The county commissioners at their last session heard the objections to the amount of taxes imposed on two mining properties in the county. The Brainerd Mining company entered its objections to the valuation of the ore on the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter and the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 10, township 44, range 31. The tax commission rated this at 12 cents per ton and the board recommended it be set at 7 cents a ton.

In the city limits of Brainerd, the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining Co. engaged in shaft sinking on South 6th street, also objected to a 12 cent rate on their property in section 36, township 45, range 31, and the board made the same recommendations to the tax commission, that the rate per ton be 7 cents.

The Iron Trade Review says that movement in the pig iron market is spreading throughout the country. While tonnages purchased during the past week have not been in as large orders as those recently booked by Buffalo furnaces, both inquiry and buying are more general and prices are showing increasing firmness. There is more buying in the Philadelphia district and furnaces are not so free to sell at recent low prices.

The depression which has prevailed in the iron trade throughout the year the total being 32,920,487 tons, as compared with 49,070,478 in 1913. An important development in the ore trade is the contract just made, by which M. A. Hanna & Co. become the selling agents for the Great Northern Ore properties, of which the Steel corporation lease expires Jan. 1. It is estimated that the ore deposits of the Great Northern lands are nearly a half billion tons.

Ledge is being safely reached and it is believed to be but a matter of comparatively short time when the shaft will be anchored. About 300 gallons a minute are being pumped.

The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. has filed to Clement K. Quinn a modification of the lease covering the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29. The Cuyuna-Sultana Iron Co., Mary Jane Campbell and husband and others have given to Clement K. Quinn an option contract and lease covering the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 3, township 46, range 29, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29.

The Iron Mountain Mining company has a meeting scheduled at the company's office in Duluth at 2 P. M. Thursday, Dec. 10. The mines stock-piling on the range are the pioneers, the Kennedy at Cuyuna and the Armour No. 2 at Ironton and Crosby, both belonging to the Rogers, Brown Ore Co.

Mines engaged in shaft sinking or in other development work include the Cuyuna-Sultana, the Wilcox, the Brainerd-Cuyuna.

People of the ranges are highly gratified to have now serving on the state tax commission Judge James T. Hale, of Deerwood, whose wide experience in mineral lands and values particularly fit him for the position. As an appraiser of lands Mr. Hale has acted times innumerable. Universally liked, northern Minnesota is proud to have the merits of Judge Hale recognized and Governor Eberhart's appointee is considered a man who will act with absolute fairness in the responsible position he holds. At the Wilcox mine of the Canadian-Cuyuna Ore Co., at Woodrow, a blowout of water was struck in the drift as ore was being approached. Ten hours were spent in pumping out the water, the two Camerons and the electric pumps being used. One pump was five feet under water at the start. At the present the water is being pumped 700 gallons a minute and everything is under perfect control.

At the county poor farm drilling is being carried on by the Longyear people. Seventy feet of good ore was found in the seventh hole. The eighth hole has been located 300 feet to the southwest.

The county commissioners at their last session heard the objections to the amount of taxes imposed on two mining properties in the county. The Brainerd Mining company entered its objections to the valuation of the iron ore on the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter and the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 10, township 44, range 31. The tax commission rated this at 12 cents per ton and the board recommended it be set at 7 cents a ton.

In the city limits of Brainerd, the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining Co. engaged in shaft sinking on South 6th street, also objected to a 12 cent rate on their property in section 36, township 45, range 31, and the board made the same recommendations to the tax commission, that the rate per ton be 7 cents.

The Iron Trade Review says that movement in the pig iron market is spreading throughout the country. While tonnages purchased during the past week have not been in as large orders as those recently booked by Buffalo furnaces, both inquiry and buying are more general and prices are showing increasing firmness. There is more buying in the Philadelphia district and furnaces are not so free to sell at recent low prices.

The depression which has prevailed in the iron trade throughout the year the total being 32,020,487 tons, as compared with 49,070,478 in 1913. An important development in the ore trade is the contract just made, by which M. A. Hanna & Co. become the selling agents for the Great Northern Ore properties, of which the Steel corporation lease expires Jan. 1. It is estimated that the ore deposits of the Great Northern lands are nearly a half billion tons.

Ivory Soap excels in all these qualities. It is not sold on the theory that it is a good toilet soap for 5 cents. It is sold on the fact that it is the best soap for toilet use that can be made at any price.
